POINTS OF ORDER.

A motion to recommit a bill to committee is not debatable, by Mahany, 1024.

A motion was made for the adoption of a resolution before the Senate, so we are beyond the question of immediate consideration, by Mahany, 1588.

A ruling by the Chair is not subject to debate, by Mahany, 1523.

Action on Senate Bill No. 419 concerning the newly created Department of Public Works is finished, so the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, is out of order in continuing the discussion of it, by Mahany, 1727.

All interrogations pass through the Chair, and not through Members, by Wade, 2788.

As long as the gentleman of the Senate are within the railing, they do not have to be in their seats to vote, by Walker, 2134.

Discussing a bill under "Questions of Personal Privilege" is not in accordance with the Rules of the Senate, by Mahany, 4051.

No bill shall be altered or amended on its passage through the Senate to change its original purpose, by Barr, 1522, 1524.

Remarks made in the Senate under "Personal Privilege" cannot be expunged, by Dent, 2861.

Republicans who insisted on considering legislation without a recess should remain in their seats while it is before the Senate, by Holland, 2806.

The amendments offered to Bill No. 1 (House) providing for a revision or amendment of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, by constitutional convention and vote of electors; destroy the general sense of the original section they amend, by Barr, 1522.

The Chair relinquishes the chair during vote on an appeal from the decision of the Chair, by Dent, 1524.

The gentleman from Adams, Mr. McPherson, has stated two bills were passed incidental to having the Constitutional Convention of 1872, by Barr, 1528, 1529.

The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, is not speaking on the bill before the Senate, by Mahany, 3703.

The gentleman from Westmoreland County, Mr. Lovett, is not talking on the bill before the House, by Walsh, 4575.

The gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, is out of order talking on a resolution at this time, by Mahany, 321.

The Majority Leader of the House should be instructed to pin on his green flower, by Stoner, 698.

The Senate is on the order of business or original resolutions, by Mahany, 1624.

There is nothing before the Senate but the request to pass Bill No. 12 (Senate) Uniform Commercial Code, over in order, by Mahany, 287.

There is nothing before the Senate but the roll call on Bill No. 517 (Senate) amending "State Tax Equalization Board Act" 1947, abolishing the State Tax Equalization Board; and therefore the gentleman from Crawford is out of order in presenting a motion, by Holland, 1991.

There is nothing before the Senate, except the announcement of the roll call, by Mahany, 2136.

There is nothing before the Senate except the roll call on Bill No. 387 (Senate) amending "Civil Service Act" 1941 continuing the civil service status of employees administering the Public Assistance Law, by Mahany, 1194.

Whether, after an affirmative roll had been verified, it can be questioned as to the presence or absence of any Member thereon, by Young, 497.
